

Statement from Mayor Daniel Lurie's spokesperson Charles Lutvak:

We are proud to have appointed a slate of youth commissioners who come from different backgrounds and walks of life, as we work every day to make San Francisco more welcoming to families. The youth commission does not oversee SFUSD, and our office remains deeply engaged in working with the school district to ensure every one of their 50,000 students get an excellent education.