California Assemblymembers and Key Labor Unions Endorse Matt Haney for State Senate

Over 50 of Haney's Assembly colleagues and unions representing nurses, educators, construction workers, laborers and Teamsters back his State Senate campaign early in the race.

SAN FRANCISCO — A sweeping majority of the California State Assembly and several key labor unions have endorsed Assemblymember Matt Haney in his campaign for State Senate, giving Haney support from over 50 of his Assembly colleagues early in the race.

The endorsements include Assembly Speaker Robert Rivas and legislators representing communities across California, along with unions representing nurses, educators, construction workers, laborers and Teamsters.

"I'm incredibly grateful to have the support of so many of my colleagues and working people across California," said Haney. "We've worked together to take on some of the biggest challenges facing our state and deliver real results. I'm excited to continue that work in the State Senate and keep fighting for safer communities, more affordable housing, and greater opportunity for everyone."
